Scarlett Bach

Mrs. Russo shared: Scarlett is working incredibly hard in her courses and it shows. She's an inspiration to her peers and is willing to lend a helping hand at any time.

Rachel Defino

Mr. Straub shared: In addition to always being very polite, patient, and inquisitive, Rachel made our visiting veterans feel very welcome and appreciated.

VOICES OF THE VETERANS

After a 3 year hiatus, the Voices of the Veterans program returned to NWR. This beloved program allows NWR students to honor veterans from various United States Armed Forces branches and hear about their experiences. After a morning presentation, veterans spent the afternoon speaking in classrooms to NWR students. Thanks to the Voices of the Veterans Committee for bringing this wonderful program back!

SOLAR CAR RACES

In April, 8th grade Science students designed and created Solar Cars out of recyclable materials that they raced at NWR! Check out their creations!

SOLAR CAR RACES

This week, the "Stoll Mobile" competed as a finalist in the Junior Solar Sprints Competition sponsored by Avenues in Motion at New Providence Middle School, New Jersey. Team members Kayrina Hartley, Aleya McClain, Kylie Seibert, and Ashley Zambrana made it past three rounds before being eliminated in the speed competition. They were ranked 26th out of 65 teams.

Many thanks to Mr. Stoll as their inspiration and motivation to succeed!
